Studio Policies

At our performing arts school, we require families to provide a four-week notice when dropping any classes. During this notice period, families are responsible for paying for the full month, with a pro-rate applied as necessary. Additionally, all students are expected to adhere to our dress code to ensure a professional and safe environment. For dance classes, this includes wearing appropriate attire such as proper dance shoes and having hair pulled away from the face. Specifically, ballet students must wear a leotard and tights. For acting classes, street clothes and sneakers are acceptable. By following these guidelines, we aim to maintain a high standard of excellence and discipline in our programs.
